Dear Members,

Re: Leadership for the mental health of your workplace

Register now for the free webinar speaker series — Leadership for the mental health of your workplace — brought to you by the BC First Responders Mental Health Steering Committee.

Join your peers from across Canada between January 21 and March 11, 2021, for six different 90-minute morning sessions focusing on leading for improved mental health in the first responder community. It will be worth your time to choose all, or a few, of the sessions where you can ask, and have your questions answered, during each live event.
