Dear Members;

Re: Passing of Paramedic Jay Piggot

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Paramedic Jay Piggot. Jay passed away this morning, following a battle with cancer.

He is survived by his wife Denise, and sons Jake and Max.

Jay worked as a Paramedic in the Vancouver area, he was also a proud member of the North Shore rescue's helicopter flight rescue team.

We know Jay will not be forgotten, in all that he achieved, and the dedication he made to protect his community.

We will be forward details for the funeral service as soon as they are made available. We remind members that help is available during these difficult times, should you need to talk, please reach out to the peer CIS team at 1(855) 969-4321 or Homewood at 1(800) 663-1142.

In Solidarity,

The Provincial Executive Committee
Ambulance Paramedics & Emergency Dispatchers of BC
